Our Business

Uniting Housing Australia Limited (UHA) trading as Uniting Housing is a Housing Provider registered with the Victorian Housing Registrar. UHA delivers property and tenancy management services to social housing properties. The management of this stock is regulated under the Housing Act 1983 and the Regulatory Framework introduced in 2007. All UHA tenancies must comply with the Residential Tenancies Act 1997.

UHA was established by the Uniting Church to facilitate housing for disadvantaged members of the community in line with the Church's ethos and mission. UHA stands apart as an independently incorporated body because it is at times necessary for property title and service contract to be held at arm's length from Uniting Vic.Tas Limited's community services and the Uniting Church organisation as a whole. In regard to these arrangements, UHA holds responsibility for governance and accountability for the sustainable function of these properties and contracts to the Victorian Department of Health & Human Services, the Housing Registrar and ACNC. UHA's Constitution and Board of Governance is structured accordingly.

From the Chairperson

There is seldom a week passes without there being an article or reference in the press to the urgent need for housing, be it emergency, disabled or affordable housing. Uniting Housing Australia Ltd (UHA) is committed to responding to this challenge. Throughout the a past six years Uniting Housing Victoria (UHV) has worked to position itself to respond to the Uniting Church – Synod of Victoria and Tasmania highest priority "To Making Housing a Priority". This decision lead to the formation of Uniting Housing Australia Ltd to fulfil this priority and to manage successfully the risks associated with maintaining and developing our social housing portfolio and to permanently maintain an accountable and affordable social housing portfolio both in Victoria and Tasmania.

During the period under review UHA has been able to engage with Uniting Vic.Tas Ltd to develop a suitable governance and operational structure that in time will support the attainment of Housing Association status for UHA. The new operational model will operate as from 1 January 2020.

This year, five x two- bedroom modular units have been located on Uniting Church land in Mount Pleasant, Ballarat with a DHHS capital grant. These units are being occupied from June 2019. Under the leadership of our CEO lan Brain, our team have investigated further housing developments on the land of several Uniting Church congregations in Victoria.

It is pleasing to report that UHA has met all the Government and Industry registrations and compliance requirements and has again achieved a positive year of operations. UHA wishes to acknowledge the support which has been received from the Uniting Church in Australia, Synod of Victoria and Tasmania.

Many thanks to the Board and CEO of Uniting Vic.Tas and to its dedicated staff of the Uniting programs in Ballarat, Harrison, Prahran, Werribee and Wimmera for their support and cooperation over the past year.

We acknowledge and thank Mr Mark Grigsby and Mr Robert Burns for their contribution to the life and work of UHA. Mark resigned in October 2018 and Robert in December 2018.

I remain extremely grateful to the directors of the Board, our CEO Ian Brain and the dedicated staff, advisers and contractors for their support and commitment to the life and work of the company through a very challenging year of planning and development for Uniting Housing Australia Ltd.

John Preston August 2019

From the Chief Executive Officer

The past year has seen significant attention paid to future housing activity in partnership with Uniting Vic.Tas. It is now clear that if we can build a strong, cooperative relationship and an effective and visionary governance structure and agreed strategy, Uniting Housing's potential of being a community housing provider of significance is in sight. This year has built the base for that future development; our mutual plans for the future have survived a quite challenging Due Diligence process overseen by Synod's Property and Operations Committee, and an achievable pathway is now before us.

These activities have not been without cost. For the first time in the past six years, our operating costs exceeded our operating revenue. While modest, and within budget, it indicates that indeed UHA does need external support to venture into expanded activities. That we have secured the support of Uniting Vic. Tas for this work should give all our supporters comfort and confidence for the future. Both I, and our expanding staff welcome the opportunity and the challenge these changes will bring.

Our regular responsibilities and activities were not overlooked during this time. We again expanded the portfolio of properties under management, we again clean sheeted the Housing Registrar's Key Performance Measures, and we increased our capital reserves, a very satisfying performance in a very busy year.

I am indebted to the UHA Board for their efforts and support this year, in particular Chair John Preston, Chair of our Risk Committee Robert Short, and Member of the Housing Strategy Sub Committee, Brian Collins. They have shared a large part of the planning and direction setting burden this year, and without them it would not have been achieved. Similarly the work of our staff, Susan Howell, and Sandra Legro has been exemplary.

Uniting Vic.Tas should also be mentioned in this regard. In a busy time for them, their Chair Bronwyn Pike, Board Director Heather Watson and CEO Paul Linossier and senior management have provided support, guidance, and now commitment to this shared vision.

The shared journey to "Making Housing a Priority for the Uniting Church" has begun.

Ian Brain August 2019

2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprises cash on hand and short-term investments which are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

(b) Property, Plant and Equipment

Classes of property, plant and equipment are measured using the cost or revaluation model as specified below. Where the cost model is used, the asset is carried at its cost less any accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses. Cost include purchase price, other directly attributable costs and the initial estimate of the costs of dismantling and restoring the asset, where applicable. Assets measured using the revaluation model are carried at fair value at the revaluation date less any subsequent accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. Revaluations are performed whenever there is a material movement in the value of an asset under the revaluation model.

Property

Land and buildings are measured using the cost and revaluation models. Where land and buildings are measured at fair value, the fair value was determined based on Directors' valuation with reference to valuation conducted by local councils or independent Increases in carrying amount arising on revaluation of land and buildings are credited to other comprehensive income and recorded in the asset revaluation reserve in equity. When land and buildings are sold the related historical revaluation gain is transferred from the asset revaluation reserve to retained surplus.

Depreciation

The depreciation amount of all property, plant and equipment, except for freehold land is calculated on a straight line method from the date that management determine that the asset is available for use. Assets held under a finance lease and leasehold improvements are depreciated over the shorter of the term of lease and the assets useful life. The useful lives used for each class of depreciable asset are shown below:

	Useful Life
Buildings	40 years
Computer Equipment	3 years
Motor Vehicles	5 years

At the end of each annual reporting period, the depreciation method, estimated useful life and residual value of each asset is reviewed, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

All other borrowing costs are recognised as expense in the period in which they are incurred.

(d) Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are recognised when the company becomes a party to the contract and are measured initially at the transaction price (i.e. cost). Trade receivables are subsequently measured at amortised cost less provision for impairment. Receivables expected to be collected within 12 months of the end of the reporting period are classified as current assets. All other receivables are classified as non-current assets.

At the end of each reporting period, the carrying amount of trade and other receivables are reviewed to determine whether there is any objective evidence that the amounts are not recoverable. If so, an impairment loss is recognised immediately in statement of comprehensive income.

(e) Revenue and other income

The company recognise revenue when the amount of revenue can be reliably measured, it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity and specific criteria have been met for each of the company's activities as discussed below.

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received net of the amount of Goods and Service Tax (GST) payable to the taxation authority.

Grants revenue

Grant revenue is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income when the company obtains control of the grant, it is probable that the economic benefits gained from the grant will flow to the company and the amount of the grant can be measured reliably.

When grant revenue is received whereby the company incurs an obligation to deliver economic value directly back to the contributor, this is considered a reciprocal transaction and the grant revenue is recognised in the statement of financial position as a liability until the service has been delivered to the contributor, otherwise the grant is recognised as income on receipt.

Asset transfers

The company receives non-reciprocal contributions of assets from the government and other parties for zero or a nominal value. These assets are recognised at fair value on the date of contribution in the statement of financial position, with a corresponding amount of income recognised in the statement of comprehensive income.

Donations and bequests

Donations and bequests are recognised as revenue when received.

Interest Revenue

Interest revenue is recognised using the effective interest rate method, which for floating rate financial assets is the rate inherent in the instrument.

Dividend revenue

Dividend revenue is recognised when the right to receive a dividend has been established.

(f) Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables represents the liabilities at the end of the reporting period for goods and services received by the company that remain unpaid.

Trade payables are recognised when the company becomes a party to the contract and are measured at their transaction price. Trade payables are obligations on the basis of normal credit terms.

(g) Goods and services tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of amount of goods and services tax (GST), except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

Receivables and payables are stated inclusive of GST. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO is included as part of receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows are presented on a gross basis and the GST component of cash flows arising from investing or financing activities which is recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is classified as cash flows.

UNITING HOUSING AUSTRALIA LIMITED NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30TH JUNE 2019

(h) Critical accounting estimates and judgments

The directors make estimates and judgments during the preparation of these financial statements regarding assumptions about current and future events affecting transactions and balances.

These estimates and judgements are based on the best information available at the time of preparing the financial statements, however as additional information is known then then the actual results may differ from estimates.

The significant estimates and judgements made have been described below:

Key judgements - provision for impairment of receivables

The value of the provision for impairment of receivables is estimated by considering the ageing of receivables, communication with the debtors and prior history.

Key estimates - Director of Housing - equity shares

The Director of Housing's equity shares in the Heywood properties and the Morton Street Accommodation Facility have not yet been confirmed with the Department. The balance included in the equity share liability for these properties represent the best and most reliable estimates based on information available to management at the time of the preparation of this financial report. These estimates may need to be change when further information becomes available.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial report of the Company for the period ended 30 June 2019 is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012:

- giving a true and fair view of the Company's financial position as at 30 June 2019 and of its financial performance for the period ended, and
- ii. complying with Australian Accounting Standards to the extent described in Note 1 and the Australian Charities and Notfor-profits Regulations 2013.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the auditor independence requirements of the Australian Charities and Notfor-profits Commission Act 2012 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We confirm that the independence declaration required by the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012, which has been given to the Directors of the Company, would be in the same terms if given to the Directors as at the time of this auditor's report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter - Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 of the financial report, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial report is prepared to assist the Company in fulfilling its financial reporting responsibilities under the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012. As a result, the financial report may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report is intended solely for the Company and should not be distributed to or used by parties other than the Company. Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial reporter, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report.
 However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial report, including the disclosures, and whether the financial report represents the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with the management regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the management with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.
